Awarded Design

designed for happiness.

Our purpose goes beyond creating beautiful products, functional and quality.

We design objects thinking about the happiness and well-being of the people who are going to be in contact with them.

We believe in honest, close and accessible design.

Design for everyone.

Maya by Faro Lab

Beauty and simplicity. Maya is geometric design combined with a play of colors. It is versatile as it functions as a table or wall luminaire, the latter vertically or horizontally. With dimmer and diffuser for exceptional visual comfort.

Totem

by Roger Vancells

Totem is a collection of outdoor bollards designed to be integrated in a respectful and natural way in different outdoor spaces. It offers points of light for signaling paths, passageways or gardens and is suitable for both public and private spaces. The choice of concrete as a construction material highlights the intention to incorporate a traditionally architectural language into the design of this collection.
